

events as a driver of revenue

“Nowadays, her life is more like a newspaper: aimless, up-to-date and full of meaningless events”

— Michel Faber

the first “event”

“For feeling, not events, is to me the essence of history”

— Christopher Pike The Last Vampire

a sort of beginning

- In the late 1990s, acid attack against women was a horrific crime in Bangladesh with 400-500 cases reported each year
- From its first day of print took up a strong editorial position against acid attacks
- By 2001, PA had succeeded in raising funds for the victims, aiding their rehabilitation, organizing legal support, hosting awareness events and lobbying the government for legislative change
- The eventual nationwide movement drastically curbed acid throwing, there were about 18 cases in 2018

why we did it?

- Social activism of the founding team
- Agent for positive change—not just reporting a problem
- Connecting with our community
- A feel good factor for the people in our organization
- No revenue motive

trust in PA

- The Prothom Alo Trust was created in 2009
- Programmes for acid victims, the fight against drugs, scholarships to poor students, and nationwide disaster relief
- This is PA's CSR – often in collaboration with partners

why programmes & events today?

- Strengthens and reinforces our brand
- A competitive edge over competition
- Relevance among sponsors—building better relationships and fulfilling diverse and increasing needs of clients marketing and CSR goals
- An alternative, important, growing stream of revenue
- Carving out a distinct, unique identity—“more than just a newspaper”

A large crowd of people, many wearing yellow shirts, holding colorful balloons (pink, blue, green, yellow) in a festive setting. The scene is bright and celebratory.

programming

“We overestimate the event and underestimate the process. Every fulfilled dream occurred because of dedication”

— John C. Maxwell

a process

- 1 Idea -- can come from anyone
- 3 Goals -- must be able to meet at least two of them
- 5 Values -- must satisfy, not be in conflict with any of them

1+1 out of the 3 goals

- Increase brand equity
- Positive impact on readership
- Generate revenue (profit) consistency with our 5 values

- Upholding journalistic ethics
- Oriented towards public well-being
- Aiding positive change
- Being innovative
- Having integrity

A group of people in traditional Indian attire are dancing on a stage. The scene is illuminated by vibrant, multi-colored laser lights (red, green, blue) that create a dynamic and festive atmosphere. The dancers are wearing ornate, colorful saris and kurta-pajamas. The background is dark, making the bright lights and the dancers stand out.

eventful days & nights

“There are many events in the womb of time, which will be delivered”

~ William Shakespeare Othello
